Robust, dramatic, dynamic.

The concept for the interior is the creation of key journey points from the entrance, defining the flow at the entrance, the choice of materials, colours and finishes. The concept use of colour can be used to highlight the key journey points at lower level. Lighting with use of colour in the entrance area.

Centred, defined, structured and structured, the concept use of dynamic and dramatic environments, making the space feel the natural environment of the park.

Central to the concept is the creation of key journey points from the entrance, defining the flow at the entrance, the choice of materials, colours and finishes.

Clear views of vibrant can be used effectively in the key journey points at lower level. Lighting with use of colour in the entrance area.